Step 5: Choose Basic Support Plan

The screenshot shows the AWS Console Signup page. The browser address bar displays the URL: <https://portal.aws.amazon.com/billing/signup?ppw-messageProcessedResponse=APPROVED&ppw-widgetEvent=MessageProcessedEvent&ppw-wi...>. The page title is "AWS Console - Signup".

The main heading is "Sign up for AWS". Below it, the section is "Select a support plan". A note states: "Choose a support plan for your business or personal account. Compare plans and pricing examples. You can change your plan anytime in the AWS Management Console."

Three support plans are presented as cards:

- Basic support - Free (Selected, indicated by a yellow arrow):
  - Recommended for new users just getting started with AWS
  - 24x7 self-service access to AWS resources
  - For account and billing issues only
  - Access to Personal Health Dashboard & Trusted Advisor
- Developer support - From $29/month:
  - Recommended for developers experimenting with AWS
  - Email access to AWS Support during business hours
  - 12 (business)-hour response times
- Business support - From $100/month:
  - Recommended for running production workloads on AWS
  - 24x7 tech support via email, phone, and chat
  - 1-hour response times
  - Full set of Trusted Advisor best-practice recommendations

Below the support plan selection, a rocket icon is shown. The heading "Congratulations" is displayed, followed by the text: "Thank you for signing up for AWS. We are activating your account, which should only take a few minutes. You will receive an email when this is complete."

A button labeled "Go to the AWS Management Console" is visible, with a purple cursor pointing to it. Below the button, the text "Sign up for another account or contact sales." is displayed.

AWS Account Creation

When Prompted to Enter Role and Interest, you can choose the appropriate which suits you.

Click on Sign-in to the Console

Accounts are usually activated within a few minutes, but the process might take up to 24 hours.

The screenshot shows the AWS Registration Confirmation page in a web browser. The browser's address bar displays the URL <https://aws.amazon.com/aispl/registration-confirmation/>. The page features the AWS logo and a navigation bar with links to Products, Solutions, Pricing, Documentation, Learn, Partner Network, AWS Marketplace, Customer Enablement, Events, and Explore More. A prominent orange button labeled "Sign in to the Console" is visible in the top right corner. The main content area has a purple and red gradient background. It includes a message: "Thank you for creating an Amazon Web Services account. We're activating your account, which should only take a few minutes. You will receive an email when this is complete." Below this, there is a "Contact Sales" button. The section titled "Personalize Your Experience" prompts the user to "Fill in the blanks below to receive recommendations catered to your role and interests." It contains two dropdown menus: "My role is: select role" and "I am interested in: select area". A checkbox is present with the text "Yes, I'd like Amazon Web Services (AWS) to share the latest news about AWS services and related offerings with me by email, post or telephone." Below the checkbox, a notice states: "You may unsubscribe from receiving AWS news and offers at any time by following the instructions in the communications received. AWS handles your information as described in the AWS Privacy Notice." At the bottom of the page, the text "Thank You" is displayed in a large, gold-colored font. A watermark "Activate Window Go to Settings to activate" is visible in the bottom right corner.
